

FILE & SMILE

"We filed our taxes and received $1,500! That made Mom smile all the way to the bank."

Over 100,000 eligible Arizona families failed to receive thousands of dollars in tax credits because they did not file a tax return. You may qualify for these special credits when you file your state and federal taxes.

Check Your Eligibility!

Earned Income Tax Credit Eligibility Table
Number of Qualifying Children	Earned Income (less than)	Maximum Credit
0*	$11,750 ($13,750 if MFJ)	$399
1	$31,030 ($33,030 if MFJ)	$2,662
2	$35,263 ($37,263 if MFJ)	$4,400
*your age 25-64 MFJ (Married Filed Jointly)

Child Tax Credit Eligibility Table
Qualifications	Maximum Credit Amount Per Qualifying Child
Children under the age of 17 years at the end of the 2005 tax year	$1,000 per year
Must have Social Security number or ITIN (Individual Taxpayer Identification Number) for parents and children.

Arizona Family Tax Credit Eligibility Table
Qualifications	Income (less than)
Eligibility depends on filing status and number of dependents	$31,000 per year

Arizona Increased Excise Tax Credit Eligibility Table
Qualifications	Income (less than)
Eligibility depends on Arizona residency and filing status	$25,000 per year

To Qualify!

You must file your 2005 state and federal taxes.

How To File!

Get your taxes prepared FREE at one of the community tax assistance sites. The sites will also e-file your taxes; that means a FREE FAST REFUND.

Where To File!

Call for FREE site locations!

Local calls: (602) 263-8856

Outside Maricopa County Calls:

(800) 352-3792

Web site: www.cir.org

Save And Get Ahead!

Learn about: improving your credit, opening a bank account, buying a home or starting a business.

Earn it! Keep it! Save it!

Printing Courtesy of Governor Napolitano's Task
Force on the Earned Income Tax Credit.

Copyright © 2005 Arizona Department of Revenue and its licensors.